

Don't Try To Change Me

David G. Spicer

Verse 1:

Weavin' in and out of traffic on the way home from work,
I'd rather beam around from place to place like Captain Kirk.
I've got alot to do, now can't you see?
Don't get in my way.
My lazy boy is waitin' for me, just like every day

Chorus 1:

Don't try to change me, I've got my own life.
Maybe it's diff'rent but, it's what I like.

Verse 2:

Well, the microwave oven's taking much, too much time,
To cook my frozen TV dinner.
Well, I think that's a crime.
My fav'rite cable show is on tonight and I can't wait.
The all night marathon of reruns is my nightly date.

(Chorus 1)

Verse 3:

When I woke up in the mornin' I was hearin' the news,
From the talkin' head on TV.
Well, he gave me the blues.
He said the world was goin' crazy like the day before.
I got dressed and turned him off as I ran out the door.

(Chorus 1)

Verse 4:

At the donut shop, the drive-thru line was so very long,
I had to wait an extra minute.
Well, to me that seems wrong.
The lady got my order ready then she said with a grin,
"Have a nice day. Jesus loves you and He paid for your sin!"

(Chorus 1)

Verse 5:

All day long, I couldn't get those words erased from my mind.
I must have heard them playing over, 'bout a thousand times.
Nothing ever gripped my mind like this, no, never before.
Perhaps, I'm on to something new.
I've got to find out some more.

Chorus 2:

Maybe I need some change in my life.
Maybe it's something that I might like.

Verse 6:

That night, while flippin' through the channels in my easy chair,
I heard this guy named Billy Graham say how Jesus cares.
He said that Jesus Christ is Lord and wants to live in my heart.
I prayed the sinner's prayer to Jesus Christ,
Right there on the spot!

Chorus 3:

Jesus has changed me. I've got a new life!
Now I'm diff'rent. I'm bought with a price!
Jesus has saved me. I've got a new life!
Now I'm diff'rent 'cause he gave me life!

Verse 7:

Now, I spend my time with Jesus givin' glory to Him,
By tellin' other folks around me how He paid for our sin.
Well, I'm so grateful that the grace of God gave me another chance.
And now, it seems like all I want to do is sing and dance! 'Cause.....

Chorus 3:

Jesus has changed me. I've got a new life!
Now I'm diff'rent. I'm bought with a price!
Jesus has saved me. I've got a new life!
Now I'm diff'rent 'cause he gave me life!
